Your Gateway to a Rewarding Career as a Naturopathic Physician

Studying Naturopathy is the gateway to a rewarding career helping people live happier, healthier lives. Inspire others to gain optimum wellness and vitality, while also earning a great living.

What do Naturopaths do?

Naturopaths study the use of lifestyle, nutritional medicines, herbal medicines and massage to help people live happier, healthier lives. Coupled with these healing modalities is the detailed study of anatomy, biochemistry and other sciences related to the human body. This gives the graduate a rounded, holistic education, which provides patients with first class health care.

What are the career options for Naturopaths?

Naturopaths mostly open their own practices and work for themselves. Naturopaths are also highly sought after in the Health Industry (Nutritional Companies, Food Manufacturers etc.). Other career opportunities for Naturopathic graduates include lecturing at universities and colleges and further studies (such as a Masters or PhD).

How long does it take to complete?

Self paced study can be flexible to suit your lifestyle. You can fast track your degree. It is up to you. You are in the driver's seat! Study from home and work at your own pace.

Do I need to get clinical experience?

Yes. You need to complete at least 400 hours with a qualified practitioner in your area. It is your choice who you do work experience with, as long as they are a qualified practitioner.

We can help you find someone if you need help.
